

Vancouver Pacific Swim Club (VPSC) is seeking a passionate and dedicated Part-Time Youth Group Lead to join our coaching team for the 2026-27 season.

VPSC trains primarily at the UBC Aquatic Centre, with additional sessions held at St. George's Senior School and Lord Byng Pool. As we continue to build a robust and dynamic program, we are looking for a coach who is excited to grow with us and contribute to a high-performance and high-character team environment.

Our mission is to empower our athletes to excel, both in and out of the water. While physical and technical development are a priority, we are equally focused on helping our swimmers build independence, resilience, and a strong character.

About Us

- We believe in being a flagship program in BC, known not only for results in the pool but also for the quality of individuals we develop.
- We pride ourselves in having athlete-centered coaching rooted in Long-Term Athlete Development principles.
- We are committed to consistency, quality coaching at all levels, and a culture where opportunity is earned through commitment, attitude, effort, and accountability.
- We place a strong emphasis on holistic development, including a robust dryland program.
